

5.5 Mood board

Task 1

Talk about the following questions in your groups. Take turns choosing a question and speaking about it for 45 seconds non-stop. Listen carefully to what your group members tell you and ask them additional questions if they have difficulty filling out the 45 seconds.

- Which emotions did you feel while and after reading the book?
- Which character(s) did you empathize the most with? Why?
- If you could change something for one of the characters, who would it be, and how would you help?
- If you could ask one of the characters anything, what would you ask them?
- If you could ask the author anything, what would it be?
- Did the book bring out any memories from your own life?
- Did the book make you think differently about something?
- Did the book remind you of other books, films, series, pictures?

Task 2

Discuss with your group what the following four parts of the mood board should express:

- Style of writing (tone/atmosphere)
- Setting
- Characters
- Themes

Discuss the overall design of your board and start choosing elements to put onto the board.

When you are ready, start creating your board. Remember, all group members must be able to explain the entire board, so keep an open dialogue throughout your construction of it.
